The Southern Messenger of last week reports that Rev. L. Pitoye, G. M. I. is at Santa Rosa Infirmary in San Antonio, where he will remain for a period of rest and recuperation. It is hoped he may soon be restored to health and make the promised visit to Brownsville.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Douglas returned from the Point yesterday.

W. A. McNeil was in town from his Santa Maria plantation yesterday, leaving for the plantation this morning.

Walter J. Collins has been at Corpus Christi the past week, attending his aged father, J. J. Collins, who is reported as critically ill, with very little hope of his recovery.

E. L. Caldwell, representing the well known hardware firm of E. H. Caldwell of Corpus Christi, is here in the interest of that house. Like his father, the head of the firm, Mr. Caldwell thinks "the Rio Grande country is all right."

Miss Nina Champion, who has been engaged in teaching near Santa Maria, left last week for her home at Luling. Miss Champion has not been in good health lately and has gone home to recuperate. It is hoped she may soon be restored to her usual good health.

Charles Champion returned to his home at the Point today, after spending a day in town attending to business matters. THE HERALD erroneously announced yesterday that Mr. Champion was appointed deputy collector of customs at the Point, it being his cousin, John Champion, who was appointed in his stead.

McDavitt Bros. have just received a fresh supply of garden seed of all kinds, also new sorghum seed and seed potatoes. Potatoes and onions for market always on hand.

WANTED: Local representative in Brownsville to look after renewals and increase subscription list, for prominent monthly magazine with large, high-class circulation, on a salary and commission basis, with a continuing interest from year to year in the business created. Experience desirable, but not essential. Good opportunity for the right person. Address Publisher, box 59, Station O, New York.

District Court Notes.

The first work of today's session of the district court was to complete the organization of the grand jury from the new veniremen, who were ordered summoned yesterday, which was done, the personnel of that body being as follows:

J. P. Cottingham, foreman, A. T. Woodhouse, J. D. Scrivner, F. A. Creager, Nestor Alcala, W. H. Schmidt, Geo. Champion, H. Reyes, Louis Champion, Manuel Molina, Santos Valdez and Eulogio Gerza.

Judge Hopkins delivered his charge to the grand jury, setting forth in impressive terms the duties imposed upon them under the law, and afterwards dismissed them to the grand jury room to begin the work of ferreting out the evil doers of this county.

The following were appointed bailiffs: Sostenes Saldana, A. Gaiza, Jas. Connor, Jose Longoria, Casimiro Salazar, Justo Herrera and Jose M. Trevino.

Libel Law of Australia.

The libel law of Australia is the queerest in the world. He who is sued for libel there must not only prove that the accusations he published were true but also that to publish them was for the public benefit. Elsewhere the truth of the accusation alone needs to be proved. An Australian sheepraiser explained this queer libel law at a wool sale. "Australia was practically colonized by convicts," he said. "There is no use denying this. The colonizers of Australia were convicts in the main. The descendants of these convicts are now Australia's leading families, the richest, the most influential, the most intelligent, the most respected. And yet these excellent people were in the past at the mercy of every editor. Let them get into the smallest squabble or dispute with some editor and the man would bring them into general ridicule and contempt by printing their ancestry."

Occasionally you meet a wise man who looks otherwise.
